A Season for Goodness’ Sake
Reflections for Lent by Jerry Welte

Wise parents and teachers do not bid children to focus on failures in their absence, but on exhibiting their best behavior. Similarly, Lent is not a time to dwell on sin, but a season to foster virtue and strive for goodness while the Lord is away. A Season for Goodness’ Sake, contemplates our mission of loving discipleship and emphasizes Christ’s desire for our growth, healing, and forgiveness. Each day of Lent is provided with a scripture verse, a reflection, and a brief prayer. This resource encourages individuals and communities to answer God’s Lenten call to holiness.

Becoming Instruments of God’s Peace
Reflections for Lent on the Themes of the Prayer of Saint Francis

St. Francis of Assisi wrote his beloved Peace Prayer to remind his followers of their goal as Jesus’ disciples—to become instruments of peace and harmony—first in themselves and then in their behavior towards others. His prayer offers us a way to use our Lenten time to reflect on how we also might become instruments of peace in a world torn by division, despair and darkness that cries out for love, faith and hope. This booklet of collected Lenten reflections by modern spiritual writers on the themes of St. Francis’ prayer—together with an accompanying scripture—will encourage you to become a more effective instrument of peace.

EASTER

This is what Easter is: it is the Easter, a passage of human beings from slavery to life and evil; from love and good. The God of life, life alone, your glory is the living man — Pope Francis

Death in the resurrection. Christ neverindeed six hours in our own resurrection from death a disbelief on. Because Our God the Father has restored our Lord to life, he will restore us to life too by virtue of his power. To God the Unconquerable

The spring of soul today: God has hurled his power.

His three days’ sleep in death for a sun has risen.

—John of Damascus

EASTER

It is only right, the power of our heart and mind, to praise You, O Only-Begotten Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ,

Risen, by Your wondrous love in life and goodness, You gave up Your Son, and rose from the grave as a Conqueror,

You broke the bond of death for the grace as a Conqueror.

—St. Gregory the Great

May be said:

Faithful One, Holy Everlasting One, have mercy on the whole world.

In choosing to do wrong
I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
